Circle one award category:	RYAN JONES PARK HERO*
	COMMUNITY HERO

*Note: Ryan Jones Park Hero Award recipients must have made significant contributions to the preservation and enjoyment of the Golden Gate National Parks. The Golden Gate National Parks consist of over 75,000 acres of natural and historic landscapes, including sites such as the Marin Headlands, Alcatraz, Sweeny Ridge, Muir Woods, the Presidio of San Francisco, Ocean Beach, Fort Funston, Fort Point, and many more. Managed by the National Park Service, these areas are set aside and preserved for the benefit and enjoyment of the public for many years to come.

NARRATIVE:

Please submit a narrative providing a description of the work your hero(es) has done and why you believe they deserve this award. Please keep your responses to a maximum of two type-written, double spaced pages using 12-point font. Use your own words to express your responses. Do not cut and paste from a website. Do not provide supporting materials, e.g., articles, videotapes, etc. If we need more information, we will request it.

In the narrative please answer the following five questions:

- How has this person or team positively impacted the environment?
- How long has this person or team been working on addressing environmental issues and problems?
- How has this person or team demonstrated leadership in working with others from the community?
- How has this person or team inspired others and what was the result?
- Why should this person or team be given the Community Hero or Ryan Jones Park Hero Award?
