

Backyard Bound Expectations

To ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all parties involved we ask that during your stay at the Backyard Bound Youth Summit you...

Show respect for the place

Leave only footprints while taking only pictures and memories from our beautiful natural surroundings.

Show respect for your safety

Keep safe by keeping out of the Pacific Ocean. (The currents are very strong and the water is very cold).

Please be prepared by bringing proper clothing, weather can change dramatically. You should be prepared for cold weather and rain. Please do not bring weapons of any kind.

Keep your group leader in the know about where you are.

Treat others with respect and courtesy

Be open to meeting new people and working together.

Violent behavior is not acceptable under any circumstances.

Please do not forget to bring your own lunch for Saturday!

Share the space

All Backyard Bound activities will take place within the Presidio and/or local GGNRA sites. 100-youth participants will be at this summit so please respect and share the space and resources (including the bathroom usage)

Be an active participant in the conference

Show up on time to scheduled activities. Be ready to learn, have fun, and voice your thoughts. Attend the workshops that you are registered for.

Stay in assigned tent groups

Tents are assigned by gender. Opposite sexes are not allowed in or around the same tent areas.

Respect quiet hours

After 10:00 p.m., is quiet hours at the Rob Hill Campground. Residents live nearby and we should respect their space and comfort. You need to be quiet in the tents by 11:00. We will have a late night room set up for those who still have energy till 12:30am.

Don't possess or consume any drugs or alcohol

Backyard Bound and Rob Hill Campground is a drug and alcohol free campus.

The fine print: Any failure to cooperate with these principles will result in your immediate dismissal from the Youth Summit.
