

PARKS FOR ALL FOREVER™

OUR MISSION

The Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy is the nonprofit membership organization created to preserve the Golden Gate National Parks, enhance the experiences of park visitors, and build a community dedicated to conserving the parks for the future.

OUR PARTNERS

The Parks Conservancy is proud to partner with the National Park Service and Presidio Trust in the stewardship of these parks.

parksconservancy.org

FACTS AT A GLANCE

- Established 1981
- Supported by 14,000 members
- Providing $400 million in support to the Golden Gate National Parks since 1981
- Growing about 200,000 native plants each year for restoration projects
- Stewarding 80,000 acres of parkland
- Coordinating 30,000 volunteers annually throughout the parks
- Connecting 20,000 kids and youth with nature and the parks each year through Crissy Field Center programming
- Counting over 20,000 raptors annually, at the Golden Gate Raptor Observatory
- Protecting 1,200 species of plants and animals, including endangered species like the San Francisco garter snake
- Leading as one of the most effective and innovative park partners in the U.S.

KEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Alcatraz Revitalization $3.5 million project featuring new audio tour, museum store, and ongoing restoration of Alcatraz Gardens

Community Stewardship Volunteer engagement and public education through programs of Golden Gate Raptor Observatory, Native Plant Nurseries, Park Stewardship, and Trails Forever

Crissy Field Center Urban environmental education center that has served, since 2001, over 700,000 youth and family members, many from diverse or underserved neighborhoods

Crissy Field Restoration Community-driven $34 million project, completed in 2001, that transformed Crissy Field from an abandoned military site to a beloved national park

Fort Baker/Institute at the Golden Gate “Post to park” conversion in 2008 created the Cavallo Point lodge and the Institute, which leverages parks as catalysts for environmental change

Golden Gate Bridge Collaboration with the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District to celebrate the span’s 75th anniversary with a festival and improved amenities

Lands End Community-supported project featuring restored habitat, new trails and overlooks, and the Lands End Lookout visitor center

Mori Point Habitat restoration for threatened and endangered species, while enhancing trails

One Tam Partnership with Marin Municipal Water District, California State Parks, Marin County Parks, and the National Park Service to secure the long-term health of Mt. Tamalpais

Presidio Tunnel Tops Project Partnering with Presidio Trust in developing the vision for a new park, on the tunnel tops of the Presidio Parkway

The Presidio Historic effort to build trails, bike-ways, and overlooks; expand Rob Hill Campground; and revitalize a variety of ecosystems

Trails Forever Parkwide initiative, launched in 2002, to create a world-class trail system

CONTACT US

David Shaw, Vice President,
Marketing & Communications
(415) 561-3064 / dshaw@parksconservancy.org